

SEVERAL BISHOPS ON DELEGATION

Ecclesiasts Cannot Keep Out of Politics When Apostle Is Candidate.

FEDERAL BUNCH READY
TO HELP BAND OF 26

Never Lose Out When Command
Is Given Them in Political Way.

"Well, the primaries of the church Republicans are over, and the Federal bunch and the Smootites are, of course, claiming the earth," said the Prominent Politician to the Stroller on Tuesday. "But have they got it?" he continued. "I noted that several ecclesiasts figure in the delegation, notably Bishop Heber C. Iverson and his first counselor, George Bowles. These two ecclesiasts are sent to both the State and the judicial conventions. Then there are Bishop Riser and Bishop McMillan.

"The Federal bunch is likewise well represented. Peewee Thomas and Alpha-bet Thompson were selected, as were their side partners, Grandma Breeden and Harry S. Joseph. Persecution activity in politics does not count with Federal officers in Utah, for the promise to deliver the State to whoever the National administration designated must be kept; therefore I do not understand why Kinky and Curly and Fussy were left out.

"In the delegation I notice seventeen pronounced insurgents. Among these is Daniel Harrington. Daniel, by the way, is one of the boys who always makes himself heard, and there is no question but that he will be heard when the convention convenes on Thursday. He was heard in the last church Republican State convention held in this city, on September 20, 1906. At that time he introduced this resolution:

And be it further resolved, that the Republican party of the State of Utah hereby declares and affirms that it is opposed to the union of church and state, and that it is also unalterably opposed to any high ecclesiast of any denomination whatsoever, seeking and asking political preferment and benefits of civil office, or unduly interfering with politics, while he is holding said high ecclesiastical or church position; and, for the future, and in order to promote tranquility, perfect equality and the best possible progress of the State, the Republican party will use its endeavors to enforce and maintain this principle.

"Harrington's fight. You remember that 15 votes were recorded for the resolution, and the author was denounced as an apostate and effort was made to cry him down. But he was heard. He will no doubt introduce a similar resolution in the coming convention, for at a recent meeting of the insurgents he declared 'that no apostle of the Mormon church should ever have been elected to the United States Senate and that the greatest harm that had ever been done Utah was the result of Smoot's election; that if the Republican party should meet defeat in Utah at the coming election, it

MAINE WOMAN MAKES OATH IN REGARD TO STATEMENT

In connection with the intense interest manifested by the public at large in the theory of L. T. Cooper as to the human stomach being the source of nearly all ill health, the statements of Mr. W. D. Spaulding of Hallowell, Me., one of the oldest and best-known druggists in that state, and of Mrs. Frederick Harvey, a well-known nurse living in the same place, will be interesting to thousands of persons who are today suffering from ailments directly traceable to the stomach. The fact that these statements are made voluntarily under oath, removes all element of doubt. The statements follow:

"Hallowell, Maine, July 20, 1907.
"To the Cooper Medicine Co.,
"Dayton, Ohio.

"Gentlemen—The policy at Spaulding's drug store is to gain the perfect confidence of the public by never recommending any medicine or treatment until its virtues have been fully established. The Cooper Remedies were to us an unknown quality, we were very skeptical of their medicinal value, and it was not until several of our customers had received such beneficial results from their use that we could no longer doubt their value that we consented to take the agency for the Cooper Remedies in this territory, heartily endorsing the same.

"Herewith we give the testimonial of a lady whose case came under our personal observation from her being a regular customer, and she says:
"Gentlemen of the Cooper Medicine Co., Dayton, Ohio: It is with pleasure would be because Smoot insisted on ruling the party instead of the party ruling Smoot."

"The convention which meets on Thursday at these seventeen insurgents who are openly arrayed against Smoot and Smoot methods will make themselves heard. There are others besides Mr. Harrington who can talk. James Devine will be there. No one could accuse him of dodging and no one has ever cried him down. He is a forceful speaker and when he talks people listen too. D. G. Risher will also be present. He also can talk and the convention will listen to him, as they will to Mr. Devine. Then John James is likewise a speaker. He will make a good deal of noise, and he will be present in the convention. He also will be heard.

Will Make Discovery.
"The avowed Smoot delegates will make a discovery when the convention meets. They will discover that there are a great many delegates who sympathize with the insurgents when the following resolution is introduced:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this convention that the Republicans shall in the future indicate their choice for United States Senator in the regular State convention of the party held for the purpose of nominating the State ticket.

"This resolution, you will remember, was included in the appeal made to the Republican State committee at its recent meeting by the insurgents, but which was turned down by the committee. The insurgents wanted it inserted in the call for the State convention. "In view of the fact that the chairman of the State committee calls the convention to order on Thursday and for the committee names the temporary presiding officers of the duty of the committee ends and the convention then becomes an organized body to do whatever it wants. Which makes its own rules and is independent in itself, the resolution I refer to can be presented and it cannot be ruled out. The Smootites, I say, will be surprised to find that they have not the world by the tail, as they think. "From talks I have had with a number of the delegates chosen Monday night, there is a disposition to be fair with the opponents of Smoot and the Federal bunch. There is another convention to be held later on. There is a ticket to be named. A number of aspirants for place on that ticket are delegates to the coming convention. They do not propose to commit political suicide. These aspirants for place will need votes in the primaries because when the date for the primaries to elect delegates to the State and county nominating conventions is fixed, the candidates will want everybody out.

"For instance, there is Jody El-dredge, who aspires to the office of State Treasurer. He has not got a walkover by any means, and while he is not a delegate to the convention on Thursday, he has a number of friends who are, and they will see that his interests are not sold. Then there is H. P. Myton, candidate for Secretary of State. He will need votes in the primaries, hence he cannot be too prominent against the insurgents. Then Grandma Breeden is a delegate. She dislikes to let go the public seat and he will need votes in the primaries for whichever one of the several offices he may decide to contest for.

Joseph Will Fight.
"The one aspirant for place who will fight the insurgents is Harry S. Joseph. He is outspoken against them. He is the spokesman for the Federal bunch and for the Smootites. He never hesitates. He will make the fight of his life, for the Federal bunch and for Smoot, and while he will be compelled to come to the convention on crutches, due to his injured leg, he will be there with both feet. As he is one of the ablest debaters and one of the most logical reasoners in the ranks of the church Republican party, his voice will be heard a number of times during the proceedings of the convention. "Therefore it is safe to predict that the coming convention will be an unusually lively one. Wednesday the advance guard will arrive and then things will hum.

"I notice that George T. Odell is mentioned in connection with the Senatorial race. E. T. Woolley of Ogden appears to be the father of the scheme to force the Salt Lake into the ring, hence the implement man of Zion may some of these days find himself famous. The Ogden admirer of Mr. Odell recently sent this letter to the Salt Lake:

"We all acknowledge the excellent work done by Reed Smoot in the Senate of the United States. We approve of his course in the Senate and we claim that his right to the position was fully vindicated. But I believe that your acceptance would unite all factions of the Republican party and tend materially to the dissolution of the American party in Utah. I am a boomer for George T. Odell.

"Advices from Ogden are to the effect that the bee has not yet inserted his stinger into the epidemia of Mr. Odell, although his buzzing is heard, for no reply has been received to the letter.

Position Church Republicans.

I recommend your New Discovery medicine, of which I have taken the contents of three bottles, and can today eat anything without inconvenience to myself. For a number of years I had suffered intensely with severe headaches, sour stomach, indigestion, pains in my side, and complications which made it exceedingly hard for me to accomplish even my household work. Physicians had given me dozens of prescriptions, which failed to accomplish a cure or even relief. Your New Discovery medicine advertisement attracted my attention, and I purchased a bottle of the medicine, which I took according to directions and before it was half gone I felt very much better; when I had taken the contents of two bottles I gained courage to eat many things which for years I had denied myself, and found they caused me no ill effects. Today, after having used three bottles of your medicine, I can eat anything I please and feel that I am a well woman once more, and therefore would advise anyone to take Cooper's New Discovery medicine, for I feel sure it will cure them."

of the Republican National committee from Utah, also the home of several well-known polygamists, the platform adopted by the church Republicans in convention on Saturday night, the great platform which will be adopted at the State convention Thursday.

"The platform strongly indorses the administration of President Roosevelt, favors a bureau of mines, an extension of rural mail delivery, good roads, tariff revision along protection lines and local option. On the last-named subject the platform says: 'We strongly indorse the great popular movement for local option, and recommend that every effort be put forth to place Utah in line with progressive States on this important question.' Direct issue was taken with the insurgents, in one particular, at least, when a special resolution was adopted urging that the members of the present Congressional delegation be sent to Chicago as National delegates—Senator Smoot, Senator Sutherland and Congressman Howell. The delegates were also instructed to work for the nomination of William H. Taft. These instructions are in compliance with the deal struck in Washington to deliver Utah to Roosevelt."

HEWLETT WOULD HAVE SENATOR NOMINATED

Former Member of Legislature,
Now an Insurgent, Defines
Position of the Latter.

Editor The Tribune—As one of the leaders of the so-called insurgents, I trust you will give me the space in your paper to define clearly what our position is in regard to this movement. There seems to be a deep misapprehension somewhere and I believe this should be cleared up so that the public can fully understand what we are contending for.

While some in this movement perhaps have some personal ambitions to satisfy, yet I firmly believe the majority who are working for this independent movement are standing for a higher principle. My stand has been from the start, and is at the present time, for but one principal object, and this is the nomination of the United States Senator by the State convention.

I have been in the Legislature when a United States Senator was elected and eighteen members in caucus have decided who should be Senator for the State of Utah. Salt Lake county alone has fifteen members of the Legislature. According to this, Salt Lake and one other county of the State which has three members of the Legislature can decide for the State of Utah who should be United States Senator.

Another reason why the Senator should be nominated in the State convention instead of by the Legislature is that no Senatorial fight will be on and when the Legislature convenes it can get tight down to business and make laws for the State without any bitterness of any kind, and instead of consuming half its time in a Senatorial fight it can devote all its energies to making good laws for the State in which we reside, rather than quarreling over a United States Senator.

It is not much better to have a State convention of nearly 600 delegates, selected from every section of the country, say from every section of the State, than to have eight men elect a Senator? Whoever was nominated at the State convention, the members of the Legislature would be in duty bound to vote for him when elected, and if they do not feel like voting for the nominee of the convention they should not accept a nomination to the Legislature. Last year, in the State convention, one Republican, named in the State convention by the Republicans and Fred Dubois for the Democrats, was elected and the Republican would be the next Senator in case either party won at the polls, and Borah was elected and added strength to the ticket by not going back to the legislature.

If in the coming State convention, whoever is nominated the people will have the right to vote for the members of the Legislature and it will be their choice. If this nomination is made at the State convention, as one Republican, no matter who the nominee is, I pledge my hearty support to help elect him, and I believe every person who is in the so-called insurgent movement will do the same. This is the fight that we make and we believe the most important event of the year, the one that will decide over 50 per cent of the people of Utah feel the same way.

In regard to the Congressional delegation not going back to the National convention at Chicago, I, for one, believe that these honors should be distributed to the United States to conserve the State in the Union should send their Senators and Congressmen to elect a President, and it is necessary of holding a National convention, for all they would have to do would be to elect a President and House of Congress together at Washington and elect the President in that way.

DECLARES THAT CHINA WILL BE GREAT NATION

HONGKONG, May 5.—Sir Robert Hart, for many years inspector-general of Chinese customs at Peking, now taking a vacation, said in an interview today that he does not know if he will return and resume his old position. China, he said, will be a great nation in spite of mistakes in the past. It was hitherto believed possible to settle disputes by an appeal to reason, and now it is deemed necessary to secure an army and navy. The customs are under native control and feeling in favor of the exclusion of Europeans is growing.

The real ruler of China is the Dowager Empress, who is sincere in her efforts for the abolition of the opium traffic.

It has been decided that the Tatsui Maru was not guilty of the offense of bringing arms into Macao, and she was anchored in Chinese waters because it was too shallow elsewhere.

Foreigners believe that the Chinese competition in combination with the boycott will prove a weapon which will eventually injure the hand of the wielder.

Laying of Corner Stone for Pan-American Building May 11

WASHINGTON, May 5.—All indications point to a notable gathering on the occasion of the laying of the corner stone of the new building of the International Bureau of American Republics on May 11. Sufficient acceptances of the invitations sent out by the governing board have been received from the highest officials in Washington, including the President and Vice-President, the cabinet, the diplomatic corps, the Supreme Court, the Senate and the House of Representatives, officers of the army and heads of various department bureaus and sections, and representatives of the business community, as well as from prominent outside officials, including Governors of States, Mayors of cities and heads of principal political and commercial organizations, to make the event one of the most important of its kind in the history of the capital.

A considerable number of the Governors who will be in attendance at the convention called by the President of the United States to conserve the national resources of the country have indicated their intention to come to Washington a day earlier in order to be present.

The principal speeches, which will be made by President Roosevelt, Secretary Root, the ambassador of Brazil and Andrew Carnegie, will have an international significance, as the structure which is to be erected is to be the permanent institution devoted to peace, friendship and commerce among the American Republics. The invocation will be delivered by Cardinal Gibbons and the benediction will be pronounced by Bishop Cranston, the dean of the Protestant clergy in Washington. The exercises will be opened by the director of the bureau, John Barrett, who will present as the presiding officer the Secretary of State, Elihu Root. The marine band will provide music and will play for the first time a pan-American air.

Three large grandstands are being erected for the audience and these will be elaborately decorated with the flags of the twenty-one American nations. Other features of the programme will be the reading of congratulatory messages from the Presidents of the different nations and the placing of a metal box in the corner stone, containing historical records bearing on the development of the Pan-American movement.

PRIEST AS PLAYWRIGHT PRESENTS CHURCH CEREMONIES

CHICAGO, May 5.—Gaspings of astonishment came from an audience, composed largely of Roman Catholics, when the curtain was lifted on the second scene of the Rev. L. J. Vaughan's play, "A Woman of the West," produced in the Bush Temple theater last night.

The interior of a Catholic church, showing the altar and an actor in the vestments of a priest, performing the ceremonies of the mass, were presented and continued for almost three minutes. With an acolyte assistant the offices of the mass from the sanctus to the offertory were depicted, the altar was lifted and the mimic priest turned in benediction upon his audience to be interrupted by the flight of a fugitive into the edifice.

As the curtain rose upon the novel scene a burst of applause came from the audience, but none came from a dozen Catholic priests and scores of church members scattered through the house. The intermission between the second and third acts was taken up by excited discussion of the scene.

The play is of the melodramatic order, although replete with clever comedy touches and original situations. The leading character is enacted by Mrs. Annie Mack Berlien who, twenty years ago, was a member of the theatrical company in which the present author was an actor.

Father Vaughan said he had not consulted with his superiors in reference to the depiction of the mass upon the stage.

The celebration of mass stopped he
